MARION, CRITTENDEN COUNTY, KENTUCKY, OCT. 12, 1911.

NUMBER 16

CONGRESSMAN

Joseph Heflin, Brilliant Alabamian, Speaks to a Large and Interested Crowd Here.

Congressman Joseph Heflin as per previous announcements in the Record-Press reached here Monday morning on the 8 o'clock train and was met by the Sturgis band and a large crowd of enthusiastic voters who had looked forward to his coming with much interest.

Promptly at 1 o'clock he was escorted to the Opera House and introduced by Judge John W. Blue to an audience of 7 or 8 hundred, who listened attentively to his captivating speech which was conceded to be one of the best ever heard in Marion.

He made a strong plea for Ollie James, Gov. McCreary and the state ticket, because, he said, they and their platform deserve support and because of the effect a democratic victory in Kentucky would have in next year's national campaign.

Congressman Heflin was entertained by Hon. L. H. James and family while in the city. He left Tuesday at noon for Princeton where he spoke that afternoon.

Revival meeting at First Presbyterian church conducted by the pastor, Rev. Henry V. Escott, will commence next Sunday Oct. 15th and continue every evening at 7 o'clock.

Ed Slayden was given an examining trial Tuesday being charged with breaking open a case of beer at the I. C. station and extracting four bottles of beer therefrom. He was held by Judge Blue to await the action of the grand jury and was sent to jail in default of bail. He was released later as county attorney Moore ruled that he was being held on the wrong charge. The matter is now left with the grand jury.

The Republican county committee met Saturday Oct. 7th, pursuant to the call of Chairman H. A. Haynes and nominated Lucian LaRue for the office of County surveyor, and also appointed delegates to attend a convention at the court house on Tuesday Oct 10th to nominate a candidate for representative. On Tuesday the delegates appointed from Crittenden and Livingston met in convention at the Court House and nominated Hon. Albert Butler former representative of Crittenden and Livingston and a farmer well and favorably known to all of us. Mr. Pogue and his friends will need to do some hustling if he wins over such a man as Albert Butler, for while we do not agree politically he is as good and true a man as either county affords and made a good representative while there.

NOTED EX-MARIONITE

Judge Chester C. Cole, Now of Iowa, Writes an Interesting Letter This Week.

A great many of the older citizens remember, and all of their descendants have heard of, Chester C. Cole, who practiced law at this bar for about ten years before the war.

When he left here for Des Moines, Iowa, he was the leader of the bar, and with a reputation throughout the state as a young lawyer of great ability. Since leaving here his home has been Des Moines, Iowa, and he is now in his 87th year, and his career has been one of remarkable success. From 1864 to '76 he was Judge and chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Iowa, and during the same years was Prof. of Law at the Iowa State University, and since 1875 he has been Dean of the Law Department of Drake University.

The following quotations from a recent letter of Judge Cole will be of interest, and the names he refers to constitute an honor roll of Crittenden County's old Citizenship: "I have always cherished pleasant memories of Marion and its citizens, and the retrospect of my career there has afforded me much satisfaction. It was indeed a training school which often put me to a test of will power and persistence in meeting the professional obstacles which were placed in my way. I have in a measure attributed my success here to the test and trials which I met there. I frequently recalled in my retrospects, pleasant memories of Dr. Gilliam's family, Dr. Johnsons, Jack Woods, the Nunns, the Bighams, the Walkers, the Wilsons, Marble and family, Dick Stuart and family, Sink Hodge, the Rochesterers, the Carnahan's, the Elders, John Blue and family, the Hills, Wagars, McKinneys, Headly, Armstrong, McClosby, Deans, Anthony Hodge and numerous others. I sincerely wish you to remember me to any of the survivors or families of those named and others who remember me.

I am now past my 87th birthday and have retained my physical and mental powers to a remarkable degree. I am now frequently called upon to make addresses to assemblies gathered for various purposes."

Henderson-Ballinger.

Quite a romance culminated last Friday when Miss Minnie Ballinger, a most attractive young lady of the Post Oak section, and Joseph Henderson, of Owensboro, Ky., eloped and were married in Evansville, Ind., on Saturday. The lovers had known each other some time, and the vows they had made were not forgotten.

Mr. Henderson is a brother of Mrs. Edgar Howerton, and made his home there for several months last year.

The bride was an orphan, who was reared and educated by Mrs. Laura Howerton, with whom she made her home, and is an attractive girl, of whom Mr. Henderson may well feel proud. They will make their home in Owensboro where the groom now resides and has a lucrative position.

A 'Possum Hunt.

Chas. B. Hina the jovial purveyor to the people, gave to his Sunday School class and a few invited guests the treat of their lives last Friday night and one they will never forget, it being nothing less than an old fashioned possum hunt. The march and the yell was most enjoyable but when a real live "possum" was "treed" the exuberance of the boys knew no bounds and they each one laughed so loud that neighbors thought it was Jack Tabor. One of the amusing incidents was when Bassett Newcom who had gone along to do the climbing, turned loose all holts and came down out of the tree, when he got close to the possum which was so big he concluded it was a coon. Bassett had had one meeting with a coon and came out second best and he did not care to repeat the experience and hence quietly retreated posthaste. His lordship was finally got to earth and killed. Elzie Vick agreed to skin him for his meat and sell the hide and turn the proceeds into the S. S. treasury. Those who enjoyed the hunt were:—Ivan Hina, Weldon Hina, Edward and Shelby Haywood, Eliza Vick, Chas. Stewart, Thos. Holloman, and brother, Hubert Crider, Ernest Minner, Bassett and Clarence Newcom, Nesbit Fowler, Wilson Woods, Gene Paris, Densel Paris, Gleford Rankin.

Several prominent committees were appointed to see what could be raised and several hundred dollars were promised on the floor to be paid in when the whole amount was secured.
